Win at the Nationals

Carlyle (CJ) Brackin

CJ a sophomore honor student at Clara Barton HS became the highest-ranked black archer in America with his second-place finish, cadet recurve division, at the 2011 Junior Olympic Archery Development (JOAD) National Indoor Championships. This season he also won the division title at three consecutive regional and state events: U.S. National Indoor/East, JOAD National Indoor/East and the NY State Indoor Championships.

Tyler Lowther

Tyler, a recent ICE High graduate, won the junior recurve division at JOAD National Indoor/East, and placed second at the U.S. National Indoor/East and the NY State Indoor. Also, a seventh-place finish at the 2011 JOAD National Indoor Championships made him the second-highest-ranked black archer in the nation.
